

RELEASE FROM LIABILITY AGREEMENT

From time to time, students enrolled in New Hope's various programs use equipment, techniques, or procedures that carry a risk of injury. All students must have health insurance carried by their parent/guardian. New Hope is not liable for injuries received by a student who is enrolled in any of our offerings.

Of note: Workshop students should also turn in this signed form in order to participate in any/all workshops all year long.

Student name(s):

As parent/guardian of the above named student(s), I hereby release New Hope Courses, its staff, instructors, and Board of Directors, from any liability incurred as a result of injuries, medical treatment, or property damage received by my child/children during their time on New Hope premises, including workshops, off-location labs and field trips.
